

Agnieszka Polończyk – doctor of social sciences in the discipline of security studies, assistant professor at the Institute of Security Studies and Computer Sciences of the Pedagogical University in Krakow. Research interests include spatial analyzes in the area of security and criminology (crimes and offenses and data from the Polish National Safety Risk Map), as well as issues related to the feeling of safety and fear of crime. Since 2018, she has been an expert in the Safety Improvement Program for the City of Krakow "Safe Krakow".

She also conducts research within the so-called historical GIS. She is the leader of the grant received from the Ministry of Education and Science in the "DIALOG" program for 2018-2023 entitled: "The GIS in history. The popularisation and possible applications of modern geoinformatic tools in the humanities basen on the example of the special operations of the Cichociemni – the 'Silent and Unseen' paratroops".